

WOMEN FOR FUTURE

International Symposium, 1–2 July 2015
Gender Justice Focus, University of Vienna, Lecture Hall C2
University Campus, Spitalgasse 2–4, Yard 2.6

PROGRAMME

Human intelligence creates unlimited ideas, research and technologies that have high impact on the development of societies and the human being itself. Do we actively design the future without reflecting this impact? How do we want to connect with and within technologies? How do we shape our environment for us and for other living beings? How do we engage with evolutionary demands emerging between biology and culture?
